CONSIGNMENT SALE BRINGS BARGAIN-PRICED UPSCALE CLOTHING TO AREA MOMS

Little Sprouts Sale Comes to Franklin July 29-31, 2011 Just in Time for Back to School

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 12, 2011 — Little Sprouts Consignment Sale will open its doors to area moms beginning on Friday, July 29 through Sunday, July 31. The semi-annual specialty consignment sale accepts only upscale clothing brands for boys and girls from babies through teens. The sale also sells books, toys, baby items, baby gear, furniture and high-end shoes that are in excellent condition.

“We are excited to offer the best upscale clothing items just in time for back-to-school. Moms can save a fortune by purchasing a fall wardrobe for their kids at our sale. In less than an hour, they can walk away with an armful of clothing from the most coveted brands at incredible prices. What mom wouldn’t love that,” says owner Mindy Spradlin.

At a typical consignment sale, moms often find themselves digging through racks of worn, outdated clothing just to find a few high-end items. It can feel like trying to find a needle in a haystack. Little Sprouts offers moms a better way to find affordable, stylish clothing their kids.

Spradlin wanted to create a unique shopping experience for discerning moms — one that catered to those who were as style-conscious as they were budget-conscious when she began in 2008. Three years later, the concept is more popular than ever. “With the economy still struggling to rebound, Little Sprouts is the savvy way to outfit stylish kids on a budget and make money by selling the clothes they’ve outgrown,” says Spradlin.

Little Sprouts Consignment Sale opens to the public on July 29-31, 2011. The sale will take place at USBA Sports, 1850B General George Patton Dr., Franklin, TN 37067. For sale times, consigner information, and a list of brands accepted and sold, etc., visit:

Little Sprouts also has plans to expand to Nashville under the direction of Spradlin’s sister, Megan Miller in the spring of 2012. “Our Franklin Sale has been such a huge success that we knew the time was right to bring the Little Sprouts experience to the moms of Nashville and the surrounding communities,” Spradlin says.

LITTLE SPROUTS SALES began in 2008 when a Williamson County mom Mindy Spradlin created an opportunity for savvy moms to outfit stylish kids on a budget. Little Sprouts accepts only upscale brands in excellent condition, and also offers children’s furniture, toys, baby gear, and books. Little Sprouts now serves Franklin and Nashville through at semi-annual consignment sales.
